Breaking Open the Word

2nd Sunday of Lent ~ March 16th, 2025
Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

“... “I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans...”

Are there days when you feel despondent? Where your soul seems ensnared in a nauseating as well as paralyzing death-grip of fear? During such moments, how have you sought to deal with such challenges? Have you reflected upon the innumerable times where frail, frightened faith-filled followers entreat God for help while wandering in the valley of despair? Can you see that you are of the spiritual lineage of Abram\Abraham? That you are not alone in your dark, desolate days? What happens when you turn to Our Lord and engage His eternal energy by praying and focusing on the ‘things above?’ Do you not feel like a person reborn?

Philippians 3:17—4:1

“... Their glory is in their shame. Their minds are occupied with earthly things....”

How often do you witness those who wield power act with bullying bluster like a latter-day Herod? Is this the way Christ taught His followers to behave? How are you called to live knowing that you have Christ in your life? As a humble hero? Or a haughty Herod? Earthly Glory or Eternal Shame, the choice is yours.

Luke 9:28b-36

“...Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good that we are here...”

Peter, James, and John were blessed with a literal as well as figurative ‘mountaintop’ experience. Can you recall times where you have been spiritually ‘elevated’ to a transcendent experience, where you had a holistic, unifying connection with Christ? How are you then called to live out Jesus’ Mountaintop Message’ once you ‘descend’ to day-to-day reality and re-engage with the mortal world?

LENTEN PRAYER

Heavenly Father,
As I enter another week of my Lenten journey, guide me to the path that leads to You. Fill my heart with gratitude, patience, strength, and peace as I strive to become the best version of myself. Let me hear Your voice in the deepest reaches of my heart. Give me rest in You. Help me to accept others, showing them Your great love instead of casting judgment. Stay with me through the busy days this week and remind me that when I need comfort, solitude, wisdom, or guidance, I can always turn to You.
Amen.
