THE SANCTUARY CANDLE

This candle burns to remind us of the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ. For the week of April 20th, the candle will burn in memory of Kathleen R. Mullin as requested by her daughter, Terry Price.

My Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter to everyone! I had mentioned it before, but I like when Easter occurs on a later date since the weather is a bit warmer and the hours of daylight are longer. I think that reflects the nature of the Easter season. Back in 2023, I was visiting the Holy Land for the first time in my life and was invited to concelebrate Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Holy Sepulcher is the church of the resurrection—Christ was crucified, buried and resurrected in that location. The church of the Holy Sepulcher has an awesome history because there are actually two tombs—the Protestants have their own tomb and then the Catholics and Orthodox have the real one. What happened is interesting; the Protestant tomb is too old—it predates the time of Christ and cannot, historically, be His actual tomb. The other thing is that the city of Jerusalem has expanded over the years and, while the church is in the center of town nowadays, it was actually on the outskirts back in the time of our Lord, which puts it in the correct location according to scripture. Being in the center of Jerusalem at that ancient church was unreal. It was an incredible blessing to offer Mass at that empty tomb. It was an empty tomb because Christ is truly risen! Whenever I have down days, I just think of Christmas and Easter—we are a hope-filled church. Everyday can be a new beginning. The Lord loves us and is incredibly patient too. Happy Easter!

In Christ,

Rev. Matthew J. Tralies

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS!

Moving forward, we will be reflecting on the current Sunday readings instead of the week ahead.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of The Lord April 20th, 2025

Acts of the Apostles 10:34A, 37-43

The readings this Sunday show New Testament writers coming to terms with God's ability to wrest from even the worst tragedy a glorious reversal. Although subtle, a reversal of sorts also appears in this Sunday's First Reading. Peter, explaining the significance of Jesus' resurrection, describes the mission that Christ left the apostles. They are to preach forgiveness, even to the very people who killed him. How can you strengthen your ability to forgive?

Colossians 3:1-4

In today's Second Reading, Paul teaches that Jesus' resurrection gives us hope for a glorious end to our lives. When we die in faith, we rely on Christ to raise us as he himself rose. We rely on Christ's conquest of death to overcome our earthly misfortunes. How do you rely on Christ to overcome misfortune?

John 20:1-9

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. What evidence have you found that Christ is alive and at work?

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

If you are in need of a ride to a doctor or test appointment, please call the Rectory 610-543-0848 and someone from the St. Vincent de Paul Society will call you back to coordinate a ride for you.

EASTER PRAYER

Good and gracious God, Our most glorious Creator, as we greet the signs in nature around us: Of Spring once again regaling us in bloom, in the songs of returning birds and fields soon to be planted, We give You praise for an even greater sign of new life: the resurrection of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, that we especially celebrate at this time. The sadness and despair of His death has given way to the bright promise of immortality.

For the Resurrection is our guarantee that justice will triumph over treason, light will overcome darkness, and love will conquer death. As we celebrate, we also dare to ask for Your grace that we may live the promise given to us, by imitating the life of Jesus in reaching out to the poor, the marginalized, the least among us, as we strive to be neighbors to all those we meet, we ask Your special blessings each and every day on our President. Working with him may we strive to make this great country of ours a beacon of hope and justice in a world hungry for peace and so in need of Your love.

We praise You in this Easter season. Change our lives, change our hearts to be messengers of Easter joy and hope.

We make our prayer through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord forever. Amen.
