BREAKING OPEN THE WORD
Most Holy Trinity Sunday ~ June 15th, 2025

Proverbs 8:22-31

The First Reading describes a God who has been ever present in the lives of his creatures. Be aware! Look for God's presence in your life today.

Romans 5:1-5

The Second Reading speaks of "boasting" in one's afflictions. What does that mean in your life? Have you been able to embrace and offer up your sufferings to Jesus? If not, find the Surrender Prayer and begin to pray it.

John 16:12-15

The Most Holy Trinity...God's inner life is a communion of self-giving love. Reflect on the most important relationships in your life. What might the Spirit of Truth be telling you about these relationships? How might the Holy Spirit be calling you to a greater self-giving in those relationships?

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

THE OCIA JOURNEY

My Life-changing Experience...

Before finding St. Francis, I was at a point in my life where I felt lost and nothing made sense. I was at a point in my life where I felt lost and nothing made sense. I hadn't really been practicing my faith, but I felt called to change that and so I decided to join OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation).

It has been such a life-changing experience for me, and I couldn't be more thankful to be a part of this church. I've been able to become closer to God and join a community of people that believes in kindness and warmth, which can feel hard to find these days. It was so heart-warming to be greeted with welcoming and congratulations by different members of the church at different parts of my journey.

Building a relationship with God and the church has brought me such peace and light in my life that I don't think would have been as strong had I not joined OCIA. It encourages me every day to want to be a better person. Thank you to the team for spending time every week guiding me through the faith and taking time out of your day and thank you to all members of the church for making me feel proud to be a part of it.

God Bless,
 Alyssa Chedeville

PRAISE THOSE FATHERS

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.

Let us praise those fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. As well, let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by words and actions of their children.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives.

Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.

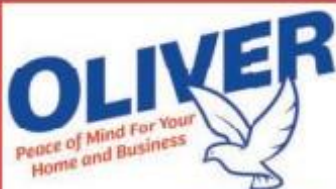

Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.
