ST. FRANCIS IN ACTION!

St. Francis of Assisi Parish seeks to emulate our patron saint in service to others. We seek to encounter people in need through a variety of offerings that provide us with the opportunity to be Christ like and to meet
Christ in those we serve.

Volunteers are always welcomed! To learn more about our mission, see the St. Francis In Action ad in the weekly church bulletin.

My Dear Parishioners,

As we enter into November, we are just a few days shy of the one-month mark of the fire that devastated our Primary School. I want to assure you progress is being made and wanted to give a brief update. First and foremost, all children are back to in-person instruction; either in our middle school building or over at St. Kevins. It's actually pretty incredible how quickly our principal, teachers, staff, volunteers and parents made it happen. Our Upper School kids were back after only 4 days and our younger students were back after only 8 days. That really is a testament to the love of the St. Francis community and the kindness of the St. Kevin community.

The larger Springfield community and various other parishes and elementary schools have donated over $265,000 dollars to assist us in the coming days as we seek to rebuild our school. You really see the goodness and love people have for St. Francis! We are still working with insurance adjusters and the Archdiocese on how to proceed with the rebuilding. Additionally, we've met with an architect and engineer to brainstorm to make all of this happen as quickly as possible. Like everything, it's not going to be cheap, but we are determined to move forward. Thank you for your continued generosity and kindness to our parish. I still hate driving by that building and seeing it so empty and damaged, it kills me, but I know Our Lord and the Blessed Mother, along with St. Francis, are on our side in the rebuilding process.

On the parish side of things, our finances are healthy, and we are always doing little things here and there to make our campus and church more beautiful. Some new trees are being planted to beautify our parish entrance off S. Rolling Road. Also, through a Memorial Fund for our church, we have been able to restore the side altars (St. Joseph and Blessed Mother) to their former glory with candlesticks, altar cloths and a crucifix. They look incredibly nice! Through that same fund, we were also able to purchase a new monstrance, which we use on Wednesday Adoration. That too looks incredibly nice and is a dignified way to house the sacred host—the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. In the future, I am looking to see if we can get our parking lot sealed and restriped. That's a big job but it'll help it to last for many more years to come.

Let me know if you have any concerns or ideas on how we can make our parish better than ever at frtralies@gmail.com.

In Christ,

Rev. Matthew J. Tralies

+ Fr. Matthew Tralies

Fr Eugene William
Pontifical Ecclesiastical Academy
Piazza della Minerva 74
Rome, Italy 00186.

Dear Father Matt, and Faithful of St. Francis Parish,

My heart is deeply moved by the sorrow that has befallen on our parish community with the fire that ravaged the beloved St. Francis School. A century of history, memories, and devotion have been intertwined with the walls of this school—a place where countless lives have been shaped in faith, learning, and love. The loss of such a sacred space is no doubt heart-wrenching, not just for the parish but for the broader community who have drawn strength and inspiration from its presence. I do personally remember the building. This August I was walking with Fr Matt in the school building on the school reopening day.

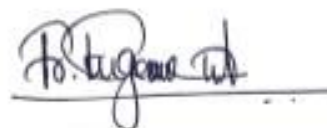

In moments like these, we often find ourselves searching for words that can truly express the depth of our pain, but sometimes silence and prayer speak louder than anything we can say. In this time, let us remember that the true heart of St. Francis School lies not only in its physical structure but in the spirit of faith it has nurtured for generations. That spirit, which lives in every student, teacher, and parishioner who has walked its halls, cannot be extinguished by fire or any other force.

It is in these tough times that we look to God for comfort and strength. We remember that, in the face of such situations, we are never alone. The parish family of St. Francis stands strong, united in Christ, and He is with you in this moment of grief. Just as St. Francis himself was a beacon of peace and hope in a troubled world, may this trial be an opportunity for renewal and growth, not just in rebuilding a school, but in deepening the bonds of faith that tie your community together.

I pray that God gives strength to Fr Matt, Principal, staff, students, parents and faithful of our church to build everything new.

Please know that my heart and prayers are with you during this difficult time. May the Holy Spirit bring healing and hope, and may the intercession of St. Francis guide you as you move forward with courage and resilience.

With deepest sympathy and in solidarity,

Fr Eugene William.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ November 10th, 2024

1 Kings 17: 10-16

The mighty power of a living, ever-present God is in evidence in this week's readings. Both the prophet Elijah responds in kind to her faith and hospitality as she gives to him despite her dire need. God works through them both as they provide for each other. The true miracle of the never-empty jar is the relationship that emerges and the lives that bloom. What might it mean to live in relationship with God as if your jug will never run dry?

Hebrews 9: 24-28

"Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf..." How does God's plan for salvation affect your daily life, your daily decisions?

Mark 12: 38-44

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches in the temple and challenges the religious leaders. He exposes their hypocrisy and self-serving motives, emphasizing the importance of genuine devotion to God and care for others. Jesus teaches that true leadership is manifest through service. How do you serve others in the leadership roles to which God has called you?

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to Your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear Your Word, live Your love, and keep in the ways of Your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and His Apostles and guide us to Your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of Your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
