RCIA UPDATE FOR PARISHIONERS

Irene Gould and Wilmorene Mason, who we now call the "elect" and who will be baptized, confirmed and receive the Eucharist for the first time on Holy Saturday evening, will take part in special rites called "Scrutinies" on the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent. The Scrutinies celebrate a deep mystery of our spiritual journey. Through these rites, Irene and Wilmorene, in preparation for baptism, will be turning over to God any hold sin has on them. Along with Irene and Wilmorene, we are also invited to allow God's grace to scrutinize our hearts as we are also once again and more fully this Lent turn over to God any hold sin has on us.

†REMEMBER ALL THOSE WHO HAVE DIED†

May they rest in God's peace and may their families be comforted.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Easter Sunday ~March 31st, 2024

Acts 10:34a, 37-43

“... He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.... everyone who believes in Him will receive forgiveness of sins through His name....” Can you recall when you were at your lowest moments? They could have been due to physical agony or spiritual anguish. Possibly both. To Whom did you reach out in fervent prayer and supplication for not only healing but also a forgiveness and expunging of those sins which gnaw at your very soul? Do you understand the simple yet profound curative power of Christ’s love which is always yours if you choose to reach out?

Colossians 3:1-4

“... If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above... ..not of what is on earth....” In what ways do you find it difficult to look up? Literally. How often do you stare straight ahead (not talking about driving/walking but times e.g. when you are fixated on the flatscreen) or peering down (most likely at a cellphone) instead of raising your eyes heavenward? Can you see how this serves as a spiritual metaphor? How easy it is to be ensnared in things of this temporal, fleeting world which can often drag you down? Perhaps you can seek what is above by little adjustments. Scroll through your phone for meditations or tune into a show about prayerful reflection. You can elevate your electronic devices toward a higher and more fulfilling purpose.

John 20:1-9

“...the other disciple also went in.... he saw and believed....” Can you see how the other disciple ‘connected the dots’ when he arrived at the tomb? He recalled the Jesus Who went about doing good and healing people. Then that apostle did not look at what was here below, an empty tomb. He lifted up his mind, heart and soul and focused on the Resurrected Christ Who is one with His Father in Heaven.

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

This week we will hear of the betrayal of Jesus by Judas, and Judas' pride and ultimate despair in not asking for forgiveness.

“It is the saddest story never told: the repentance of Judas and his restoration by Jesus. Think of all the churches that were never built: ‘The Church of St Judas, Repentant.’ Think of the feast day never celebrated: ‘The Repentance of Judas.’ ---Msgr. Charles Pope

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available to us, so that we might have restoration to Jesus.
