BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

The 26th Sunday of Ordinary Time ~ September 29th

Numbers 11:25-29

“...Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!”
What are your thoughts when you think whether you could be a prophet? What is your ‘gut feeling’? One of discomfort? An incredulous ‘Nah, not me. I’m not that holy.’ reaction? Ponder further for a moment. Didn’t Jesus call on ALL of us to be His disciples? The Lord does not say you have to be an Isaiah level prophet. Or John the Baptist. Christ says I need a ‘regular person next door\neighbor\Little League volunteer\hard working person from Springfield’ to prophesy My words in your daily loving actions. Hey, that’s you! That’s me. I just think we might be able to do that. Right?

James 5:1-6

“.... Your wealth has rotted away...”
Hmm, kind of interesting. Reflect on the first reading. The focus is on what? Being a prophet. What does the second reading home in on? People worried about human profit. Read James’ passage slowly. It is not a long one. Does it seem like a happy tale? The folks who hoarded their wealth don’t seem to be doing too well, do they? Why do you think? Maybe a little more focus on being a prophet versus making a profit would have been called for?

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

“...For whoever is not against us is for us....”
Humanity has unfortunately has always struggled with divisions. The pages of history are replete of splits and schisms which have horrendous consequences. Can you see where so many of the world’s disputes originated from people’s pre-occupation with the ‘Letter’ of God’s Law while losing focus on the ‘Spirit’ of God’s Law? In what ways can you seek to build bridges by finding common cause with those who share in the Spirit of God’s Law versus constructing walls of division by obsessing on the Letter?

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

If anyone is in need of assistance with utility bills, or other bills, or in need of food, or, if you know of someone who needs help, call 610-212-4932 and someone from the St. Vincent will call you.

If you are in need of a ride to a doctor or test appointment, please call the Rectory 610-543-0848 and someone from the St. Vincent de Paul Society will call you back to coordinate a ride for you.

ST. JOHN’S HOSPICE CASSEROLES

The casserole containers and recipes are located in the main vestibule next to the book display and in the basement of the rectory. Casseroles must be frozen and can be dropped off before mass the weekend of St John’s Hospice collection. Coolers are at SFA entrances on weekend of collection. The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

“I will make you fishers of men.” ---Matthew 4:19
This is one of the best one-liners in Scripture. Notice the first part: “I will make you...” In today’s culture, everyone wants to invent and define their own reality. But Jesus puts this lie to bed. We learn from Him that it’s God who acts, and if we give ourselves over to His creative power, He will make us into something far better than we could ever imagine.

A DAILY PRAYER FOR YOUR CHILDREN

Dear God,

Another day is ahead, and once again, I want to release my children who I love so incredibly much, straight into Your tender care. Because I know that's the best place they could ever be. Thank You in advance for all that You have in store, for this day, for this season, and for their entire lives.

I ask for Your wisdom and direction over their day, that You would give them understanding beyond what their years say they should even know. I ask that You would remind my children again of how very much You love them. I pray that they find security and confidence fully in You, knowing that You are trustworthy and true. I ask for laughter and joy to fill their day. I pray that You will give them boldness and courage to face the challenges set before them. I ask for You to protect them from feelings of shame or condemnation, but instead, cover them with Your grace and hope. Amen.
